Memorandum

TO : Director of Training

DATE: 6 August 1965

FROM : Chief, Career Training Program

SUBJECT: Weekly Activities Report #21

A. SIGNIFICANT ITEMS

Earlier this year we received the application of Mr. Joseph

25X1A

The file also reflected a very good level of ability and achievement. It was put into process immediately and in due course [REDACTED] was invited in for interviews and screening. In view of his stated interests in research and analysis, plus some experience with UN youth organizations, arrangements were made for interviews with representatives of OCI and CA Staff as well as CTP officers. Unfortunately, his combination of supercilious manner and egotistical self-evaluation persuaded his interviewers that he was not suitable for the Agency. While we were preparing a statement of rejection, a call from the Security Office came in to advise us of the following:

25X1A

1. The Office of Security had disapproved [REDACTED] for Agency employment.

25X1A

2. [REDACTED] Congressional sponsor called Mr. Helms who, after discussion of the case with Howard Osborn, upheld the disapproval.

25X1A

3. A Security Office representative talked with [REDACTED] and the latter is withdrawing his application and will accept a position with a New York bank.

25X1A

4. No further correspondence will be necessary.
